SUPPORT SERVICES REVIEW: TRENDS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Commencing with the 2 - 6 March 1970 running of the course, quotas have been adjusted as follows to accommodate two students each from the other Directorates:

Office of Communications
Office of Security
Office of Logistics
Office of Finance
Office of Personnel
Office of Training
Audit Staff
Office of the Deputy Director for Support
Office of Medical Services Clandestine Service Directorate of Intelligence Directorate of Science and Technology

Although the general grade requirement for attendance remains GS-9 through GS-15, to assure a continuing input of women into the course, exceptions will be made on an individual basis to accommodate senior secretaries in grades GS-6, 7, and 8 from Offices and Divisions of the Support Services.

Students are expected to remain overnight each night for the four evenings during the course.
Exceptions, based upon family or work emergencies and attendance at night school courses, are made by the Course Administrator, [REDACTED]

On occasion, some students appear, at least initially, less than enthusiastic over having been "put in" or "told" that they would attend the
